Rich Passage 1 in the dock at Pier 54.

BREMERTON, Wash. – Starting on Monday, August 7, Kitsap Fast Ferries will not dock at Pier 50 because a contractor for Washington State Ferries will be moving the passenger-only ferry facility to the north side of Colman Dock next to the fire station.

During this period, Kitsap Transit will temporarily use a dock at Pier 54 under an agreement with Argosy Cruises. Half a mile north of Pier 50, the dock at Pier 54 is next to the famous Ye Olde Curiosity Shop and a Harley-Davidson store.

Kitsap Fast Ferries will maintain its current weekday morning sailing schedule. On weekday afternoons, most sailings on both sides of the Puget Sound will depart up to 45 minutes later: The fast ferry will depart Bremerton at 4:05 PM, 5:17 PM, and 6:27 PM; Seattle at 4:42 PM, 5:52 PM, and 7:02 PM. Some sailing times on Saturday will change as well; consult the temporary schedule (below).

Once the passenger-only ferry facility reopens on the north side of Colman Dock – the target date is August 14 – Kitsap Fast Ferries will dock at that location for up to 18 months or until Pier 50 reopens: A new passenger-only ferry facility is anticipated to open there in fall 2018 that will be sheltered from the weather and connected by a pedestrian bridge to the Washington State Ferries terminal building.

As construction proceeds at Colman Dock, Kitsap Fast Ferries may revisit its departure and arrival times. Changes to the fast-ferry schedule will ripple through to schedules for Kitsap Transit’s local foot ferries and express bus routes that connect to the Bremerton Transportation Center. To stay abreast of changes to bus and ferry schedules, Kitsap Transit recommends customers subscribe to e-mail/text rider alerts by visiting KitsapTransit.com and clicking in the upper-right corner on “Subscribe to Alerts.”
